

Benefits of Working With Us

We're a passionate team supporting over 1,700 people - and we're all about people first support. That means living our values every day, especially RESPECT: Relationships, Excellence, Strength, Passion, Experience, Community and Trust. Discover the range of benefits you can access by being part of our allied health and teaching teams.

Work-Life Balance

Adaptable work schedules and flexible rosters

- Options for monthly rostered day off & additional special leave
- Multiple work locations to suit availability and life demands

Compensation & Benefits

- Above award pay rates
- Annual professional development and study leave
- Salary packaging and health insurance discounts
- Free annual flu vaccinations
- Corporate health and fitness membership

Culture & Connection

- Monthly wellness newsletter and free EAP access
- Team-building and events
- Opportunities to connect with customers and community

Challenging & Meaningful Work

- Career growth and secondment opportunities
- Industry exposure and recognition
- Working with purpose in a not-for-profit organisation

Job Security & Stability

- Stable leadership and clear strategic vision
- Strong reputation in the community
- Recognition and incentives for staff milestones

Our People Stay Longer

Average tenure of 6.11 years - well above the national benchmark for the sector, reflecting deep commitment to our organisation.

SCAN HERE to check out our current job opportunities.

connectability.org.au

connect
ABILITY
AUSTRALIA